NORFOLK INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT SALUTES THE MILITARY WITH REDUCED FARES THROUGH TAKEORF.COM

NORFOLK, Va. – (August 2006) – Norfolk International Airport has expanded its travel portal, www.TakeORF.com, to now include special fares and discounts for eligible military personnel and their families. Reservations for air travel, hotels and cars are available through the online service, and new discounts for military are as high as 40% off regular prices.

“We are pleased to offer this additional capability on TakeORF.com,” says Kenneth R. Scott, executive director. “We hope these fares will help members of our military community enjoy a visit with their families or a well deserved vacation.”

TakeORF.com was launched two years ago to provide discounted air travel information and increase bookings for air carriers out of Norfolk International Airport. The site and its capabilities were expanded after the first year to include discounts for hotels and cars.

To participate, registration is required on the site. To date, more than 65,000 people have registered to take advantage of the savings and convenience.

Norfolk International Airport provides service by the following airlines: American, American Eagle, Continental, Continental Express, Delta, Delta Connection, Northwest, Northwest AirlinK, Southwest, United Express, US Airways and US Airways Express.
