FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Norfolk International Airport corrects air cargo reporting statistics

NORFOLK, Va. – (August 2, 2016) – In April, FedEx reported that software issues were causing the misreporting of air cargo statistics at Norfolk International Airport (ORF). The issues have been resolved and FedEx has issued a corrected report for March and added new information for April, May and June.

Below are the calendar year-to-date air cargo figures reported as being carried by the scheduled passenger airlines (American, Delta, Southwest and United Airlines) and the all-cargo airlines (FedEx, Mountain Air Cargo and UPS) at Norfolk International Airport. Regular air cargo reporting will resume with the monthly passenger/cargo activity report.
