Breeze Expands Service to Florida

“We have seen high demand from Norfolk International Airport,” said David Neeleman, Founder and CEO of Breeze Airways, “As we continue to grow our base at ORF, we hope that the addition of this route will allow our Guests to more easily and affordably travel to and from Southwest Florida.”

“Winter and Fall are high demand periods for Ft. Myers, so this is launching at a great time. This will be very well received by the community.” said Norfolk Airport Authority President and CEO Mark Perryman.

“It has been over two years since Breeze launched its inaugural flights in Norfolk. Since then, this rapidly expanding airline has helped transform our airport into a highly sought-after operations base, connecting our residents and visitors to 15 cities with convenient nonstop service. From Maine to Florida and spanning the entire country to the Pacific Coast via Los Angeles, Breeze has significantly enhanced our connectivity," said Norfolk Mayor Kenny Alexander. "Our collaborative partnership has generated new employment opportunities, economic growth, and an influx of visitors. We eagerly anticipate the introduction of our 16th Breeze destination when the Fort Myers service commences this autumn."

Breeze offers its Guests both bundled and ala carte options known as Nice, Nicer and, on flights operated with the Airbus A220-300, Nicest. The Nicest bundle includes Breeze Ascent, two checked bags, and complimentary snacks and beverages, including alcohol.

Breeze flies both regional and transcontinental flights on a fleet of Embraer 190/195 and Airbus A220 aircraft. The carrier has ordered 80 A220s, with options for 40 more.
