From Norfolk, VA:

- San Diego, CA (Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Mondays, starting May 1, Nice from $129 one way*).

Mark Perryman, Norfolk Airport Authority President and CEO states “Norfolk and San Diego have a natural military, maritime and tourism bond. San Diego is Norfolk’s 4th ranked passenger demand market, and well deserving of this nonstop coast to coast service. Breeze Airways continues to invest faith and resources in the Norfolk market.”

“I am very pleased with Breeze’s continued commitment to Norfolk,” said Mayor Kenny Alexander. "Our city's diverse sectors, including business, industry, education, and tourism, are flourishing and evolving, fueling the demand for direct flight service. We eagerly anticipate hosting more visitors from Southern California, showcasing the rich experiences our community has to offer. I am confident that our residents will also embrace these direct flights, seizing the opportunity to explore and appreciate another top-tier West Coast destination.”

“San Diego is one of the U.S.’s most popular summer destinations with great food, beautiful beaches and popular family attractions ,” said Breeze Airways’ President Tom Doxey. “We’re thrilled to add service to San Diego, our fifth destination in California and 46th airport served nationally.”
